

THE NEW SCHOOL

Celebrating 20 years of JOYFUL students

Here's what some of our graduates have been doing:

- Researching plant use of the indigenous peoples of the Brazilian rain forest.
 - Hiking 1800 miles of the Appalachian Trail at the age of 17.
 - Managing a college bookstore and a non-profit.
 - Designing and manufacturing wedding dresses and historical garments for an international clientele.
 - Advocating for and counseling the autistic.
- Writing code for a computer game consortium funded through crowd-funding.
 - Developing an educational, community oriented farm.
 - Rebuilding old hotels and running a youth hostel in the Czech Republic.

- Riding as the first female American amateur jockey licensed in Ireland.
- Teaching English in Cambodia.
- Running their own and others' businesses. (almost 44% do!)
- Studying law, economics, neurobiology, linguistics, sustainable development, equine osteopathy, culinary arts, psychology, physics, the Great Books, and ...
